McAulay's seniors win Royal City bonspiel

Former world champion Greg McAulay of Richmond beat Royal City's Mel Steffin 4-3 to take the Royal City men's bonspiel on Sunday. The teams were tied 1-1 after four ends in the A event final, but McAulay pulled ahead with two in the fifth end. Steffin forced McAulay to throw his last rock in the eighth end, needing to steal two, but only ended up stealing one. McAulay's team of third Ken Watson, second Dale Hawkley and lead Dale Reibin is not eligible for the Region 11 Men's Bonspiel Tour due to playdown qualifying last season, but they should be a force to be reckoned with in senior men's playdowns this season.

There were 36 teams in the bonspiel with the results and Region 11 Men's Tour points earned as follows:

A Event
