BC Masters make playoffs at National Championships

Winnipeg, MB (April 4, 2011) The Canadian Master Curling Championships move into page playoffs at Winnipeg's Assiniboine Memorial Curling Club today.

Eight teams are still alive in pursuit of the Masters titles. In the men's division, unbeaten Layne Noble of Ontario meets Manitoba champion John Usackis of Lac du Bonnet in the 1 versus 1 playoff. The Garry Gelowitz team from British Columbia faces Phil Gagnon's Quebec foursome in the 2 versus 2 playoff.

In the women's division, Manitoba's Joyce McDougall takes a six-game unbeaten streak into her 1 versus 1 page playoff against the Karin Host team from British Columbia. Joyce Potter of Ontario will be going against Suzanne Green of Nova Scotia in the 2 versus 2 playoff.

All four games start at 2:30pm (CDT) at the Assiniboine Memorial club. Semi-finals will follow on Tuesday morning at 9:00am, and the two national Masters finals at 2:30pm Tuesday afternoon.
