

Media Release

Contact: Robbie Gallagher
604-333-3617
rgallagher@curlbc.ca

BC curling teams in the hunt at national & international championships

Richmond, BC (February 24, 2011) Victoria's Daniel Wenzek's team of Nolan Reid, Max Langlais and Calvin Heels are at 2-2 in their pool at the Canada Winter Games. They play Manitoba later today in their last game. A victory will guarantee them at least a tie-breaker.

Click here to follow their results.

Kelowna's Kelly Scott, Jeanna Schraeder, Sasha Carter, Jacquie Armstrong and Shannon Aleksic stole the win against New Brunswick in this afternoon's draw at the Scotties. They currently sit in a 3-way tie for the fourth and final playoff spot. They play Saskatchewan in tonight's last round-robin game.

Click here to follow their results.

Jim Armstrong, Darryl Neighbour, Ina Forrest, Sonja Gaudet and Bruno Yizek are tied with Norway for first place at 5-0 as Team Canada at the 2011 World Wheelchair Curling Championship. They have four more round-robin games to play.

Click here to follow their results.

About Curl BC

Curl BC is the provincial sport governing body responsible for the development, promotion and organization of curling in British Columbia. Curl BC is also responsible for the championship system that declares provincial representation at National events. In cooperation with its Members, Curl BC provides service to both competitive and recreational curlers, including a variety of adaptive groups.